Editorial Style Guide

Marketing Services

6/1/2015

Introduction

Clear, consistent writing is critical to the success of any communication project.

This Harper College Editorial Style Guide has been designed to help you prepare copy for printed publications, websites and other internal and external communication materials. For questions not covered in this guide, consult The Associated Press (AP) Stylebook, the college edition of Webster's New World Dictionary or (for events) the Northwestern University School of Music Style Guide.

If you have questions about this style guide or communication projects, e-mail standards@harpercollege.edu

A

abbreviations

Avoid abbreviations in running text.

Professor Smith, not Prof. Smith

Use abbreviations and ampersands (&) when they are included in running text and part of a formal name.

Robbins, Schwartz, Nicholas, Lifton & Taylor, Ltd.
Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Avoid using abbreviations for an organization's name unless the agency or organization is known by its abbreviation: FBI, CIA, FCC. Do not use abbreviations or acronyms that the reader does not quickly recognize.

See academic degrees, acronyms, addresses, ampersand, months and time.

academic courses

See course titles.

academic degrees

Use an apostrophe in bachelor's, master's, etc., but no possessive in Bachelor of Arts or Master of Arts. In general, avoid abbreviations of degrees by using a phrase such as: Fred Smith, who has a bachelor's in mathematics.

Use the following for Harper's six associate degrees: the Associate in Arts (A.A.), the Associate in Science (A.S.), the Associate in Fine Arts-Music (A.F.A.), the Associate in Fine Arts-Art (A.F.A.), the Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.) and the Associate in Engineering Science (A.E.S.).

Harper also grants a: Certificate of Achievement and General Studies Certificate.

Use abbreviations such as B.A., M.A., LL.D. and Ph.D. with periods only when it is necessary to identify individuals by degrees on first reference. Use these abbreviations only after someone's full name, not just a last name: Sally Smith, Ph.D., presented a course.

Note: When referring to bachelor's degrees, master's, etc., lower case on all references. When using Bachelor of Arts, Associate in Arts, etc., capitalize on all references.

academic departments

Lower case all college departments except for ones that are proper nouns or adjectives or part of a formal name: the department of mathematics, the math department, the science department, Harper College Department of Nursing. However, always capitalize English when referring to the English department.

Use the following formal names when referring to Harper's academic divisions. Capitalize on all references:

- Academic Affairs
- Academic Enrichment and Language Studies Division
- Business and Social Science Division
- Career and Technical Programs Division
- Continuing Education Division
- Health Careers Division
- Liberal Arts Division
- Library Services / Resources for Learning Division
- Mathematics and Science Division
- Student Development Division
- Wellness and Human Performance Division

Use the following formal names when referring to Harper's administrative divisions. Capitalize on all references:

- Administrative Services
- Information Technology
- Human Resources/Diversity and Organizational Development
- Strategic Planning and Alliances

academic titles

Capitalize and spell out titles when they precede a formal name. Lower case in all other uses.

President Jim Jones

Jim Jones, president at Acme, spoke.

Ted Smith, dean of Acme University, talked.

Professor Barnes

Paul Barnes, professor of nanotechnology at Acme University, gave a lecture.

acronyms

ACT

Formerly American College Testing Program, now referred to as ACT on all references.

FAQs

Capitalize and use on all references on the Web. Acronym for frequently asked questions. Spell it out in running text.

IT

Acronym for information technology. Spell it out and lower case on first reference. On second reference, use IT (capitalized).

LAN

Acronym for local area network. Spell it out. Use LAN on second reference.

RSVP, R.S.V.P.

Single capital letters; do not include periods in between each letter.

See also abbreviations.

addresses

Abbreviate Ave., Blvd. and St. when they are used with a numbered address: 1250 Maple St. Spell them out and capitalize when they are used with a street name but no number: Maple Street. Lower case and spell out when used with more than one street name and no numbers: Maple and Oak streets. All other words such as alley, drive, road, etc. are spelled out.

Always use figures for an address number: 1500 W. Golf Road.

Spell out First through Ninth when used as street names, but use figures for 10th and above:

135 First St., 1010 31st Ave.

Abbreviate compass directions in street addresses: 650 E. Fifth St., 700 N. Palatine Road, 1500 W. Golf Road.

Exception: When using “West” in the Harper College address, spell out “West.”

Addresses in running copy are separated by commas: Harper College, 1200 West Algonquin Road, Palatine, IL 60067-7398. When listing mailing addresses, use the two letter postal abbreviation. Use ZIP code-plus 4 digits when possible.

Exception: When using “Illinois” in the Harper College address, spell out “Illinois.”

Use official names of offices: Office of the Registrar, Human Resources Department, Office of Student Financial Assistance, etc. in mailing addresses.

See also numbers, commas.

admission

Admissions Outreach (with an s) but Admission Office (without an s)

advisor

Use advisor with the –or ending on all references.

affect, effect

Affect (verb), to influence; avoid the usage of affect as a noun.

The game will affect the score.

Effect (verb) means to cause; (noun) means result.

She will effect changes in the company.

The effect was clear.

African American

African American or black are acceptable. There are no hyphens in African American.

ages

Use figures for ages. He is 6 years old.

Hyphenate ages when they are used as adjectives before a noun. A 10-year-old girl, but the girl is 10 years old.

aid, aide

Aid is used in reference to a general service or assistance. Aide is used in reference to an individual who assists.

The student aide works in Admissions Outreach.
Financial aid is available for those who qualify.

all right

Never alright

alumnus, alumni, alumna, alumnae

Alumnus is the singular form for a man who has attended a school; alumni (plural). Alumna is the singular for a woman who has attended a school; alumnae (plural). Use alumni when referring to group of men and women.

a.m., p.m.

Lower case with periods: 3 a.m., 4 p.m. Avoid 2 p.m. this afternoon, 12 noon and 12 midnight.

See time.

American Indian

Native American also is acceptable.

ampersand (&)

Use only when part of a company's formal name: Robbins, Schwartz, Nicholas, Lifton & Taylor, Ltd. Do not use in place of and.

Annual Fund*apostrophes (')

Do not use apostrophes when using plurals for dates and abbreviations: 1990s, 1880s, Ph.D.s, B.A.s, 20s, VIPs, ABCs

Use apostrophes for single letters: He received three A's on his report card. Do not put quotes around grades. A's, B's, C's.

See academic degrees, capitalization and grades.

Asian American

Asian American students, Asian Americans

Avanté

See building names.

B

bias-free language

international student is preferred to foreign student.
first-year student instead of freshman

See freshman.

black

Both black and African American are acceptable.

Board of Trustees

Capitalize when referring to Harper College's Board of Trustees.

Do not capitalize board or trustees when they are used alone or in second reference.

The board members voted. The trustees were appointed.

Note: When referring to boards of trustees besides Harper College, lower case on all references.

building names

When referring to buildings on campus, do not use the name of the building. Instead use the letter of the building. The name of the building will no longer be used to identify centers on campus.

Room numbers begin with the corresponding letter of the building they are located.

Exceptions: Use letters to refer to all buildings except those with proper names: Wojcik Conference Center, Performing Arts Center, Wellness and Sports Center, Karl G. Henize Observatory, Worknet, Illinois Small Business Development Center (ILSBDC) and the Student Center.

For example: Admissions Outreach, Building C, Room C102

When writing directions to the campus, use the name of the entrance, the parking lot number and the building letter or proper name.

Euclid Entrance
Parking Lot 12
Building A

Avanté

On first reference: Avanté, Center for Science, Health Careers and Emerging Technologies

Second and subsequent references: Avanté or the Center

In MS Word, the accented “é” may be created by holding CTR+’, then (while still holding CTR+’) “e.”

Canning Center

On first reference: Canning Center for Student and Enrollment Services

Second reference: Canning Center.

Center for Multicultural Learning

CD-ROM

All caps when referring to a compact disc acting as a read-only memory. CD-ROM disc is redundant. The more generic, abbreviated CD is also acceptable.

cell phone

Always two words

chair

Use chair instead of chairman, chairwoman or chairperson.

He is the chair of the history department.

Chicagoland

Capitalize and use when referring to Chicago and the surrounding suburbs.

cocurricular

One word

See hyphens.

College

Capitalize College on second reference when referring to Harper College. Harper College is located in Palatine. The College offers various programs.

See Harper College.

commas

Use commas to separate items in a series, but do not put a comma before a conjunction:

The ball is yellow, red and green. Do you want pickles, tomatoes or lettuce on your sandwich?

Commas always go inside quotation marks:

“The dog is over here,” he said.

“I am 10 years old,” she said.

Separate names and titles with commas if they follow the name:

John Smith, Ph.D.,

John Smith, professor of mathematics,

Do not use commas to separate Jr. and Sr. from a name.

Martin Luther King Jr.

Bob Smith Sr.

Use commas in figures greater than 999: 1,234.

Exceptions: street addresses, 7500 North Cook St.; room numbers; telephone numbers and years, 1998.

See dates, addresses.

dashes

Use em dashes (—) to set off phrases where something more than a comma is needed. Do not use a space between the word and the em dash.

Correct: Harper College—one of the oldest community colleges—is located in Palatine.
Incorrect: Harper College—one of the oldest community colleges, is located in Palatine.

Use en dashes (-) for ranges in years, page numbers, times, etc. with no spaces between the dashes.

Examples: 2002-03, 1998-99 (do not repeat the year on second reference for ranges), pages 125-258, 9/1-9/28, 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

database

Always one word

dates

Time, date, place should always be in the following order:

at 6 p.m. Friday in the theater at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 1, in the Performing Arts Center

Use the year with the month only if the date does not fall in the current year.

Do not use endings -st, -nd, -rd, -th with dates

April 1 event, not April 1st event

Use a comma before and after the year if a month and date appear with it: December 31, 2003. Do not use a comma between the month and year when it stands alone: December 2003.

Decades may be referred to as: the 1980s, the 1990s, etc. Do not use an apostrophe. Use numerals.

Exception: See events.

equal opportunity statements

A version of the statement below must be included in all College marketing printed materials, websites and electronic, print, multimedia or other promotional materials or mediums.

Short Version: Use on shorter documents or publications such as direct mail pieces, postcards, etc.

Harper College is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs, facilities and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status or sexual orientation.

Long Version: Use for longer documents or publications such as the College catalog.

Harper College is committed to a policy of equal opportunity in its admission and employment programs. Harper College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability or unfavorable discharge from military service. This policy governs the recruitment and admission of students, the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff and the operation of any of the College's programs and activities as specified by federal laws and regulations. It is also the policy of Harper College that no student or employee shall be subjected to sexual harassment, which is regarded as a form of discrimination. Inquiries regarding Affirmative Action should be directed to the Assistant Vice President for Diversity and Organizational Development. Inquiries regarding college compliance with Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act should be directed to the College Compliance Officer for ADA/504.

Comprehensive version is available on the Harper College website under the Jobs at Harper section

website

<http://goforward.harpercollege.edu/about/directory/hr/eos.php>

This link to the Comprehensive Equal Opportunity statement should be included in official e-mail newsletters and other electronic publications from the college to prospective students and the community.

Format:

Event
Day, Date, Time
Location

Example:

Harper Symphony Orchestra
Latino Festival Concert
Sunday, October 10, 3 p.m.
Performing Arts Center

When necessary, we add:

Algonquin Entrance, Parking Lots 1 and 2

NOTE: This order of day, date, etc. is different than that prescribed for using within copy per the style guide.

For buildings/rooms with special names we follow this format:

Drama Lab (Building L, Room L109)

music concert programs

Titles

“Generic” titles such as Symphony, Concerto, Sonata, Mass, Requiem, etc. are capitalized but NOT bolded, italicized, in quotes, etc.

Toccata and Fugue in D Minor

Some of these standard musical works have a popular title. Reference it in quotes parenthetically:

Piano Concerto No. 5 in E-flat Major (“Emperor”)
Sonata in E-flat Major, Op. 30, No. 5

other music and cultural arts concerts, except the Chamber Music Festival, which has a custom cover each year.

All programs have an introductory title page:

The Harper College Cultural Arts Committee
presents
Ensemble Name

(Optional information on introductory title page: event title or “featuring:” with names, instruments, etc.)

Day, Date
Time
Location

Inside program page with “Program” centered at top and pieces listed, the word “Intermission” in italics and standard language about silencing cell phones at the bottom of the program listing:

The taking of photographs and the use of recording equipment are prohibited.
Please silence all pagers, cell phones and other electronic devices.

“Program” page(s) are followed by “Program Notes” (if provided) and information about the artists, conductors, upcoming events, etc.

Performing Arts Center events must include “Emergency” page as last page. See a printed program for examples.

ticket price listings

Always list Harper student rate first:

$X Harper students w/valid ID
$X other students w/valid ID
$X general admission

Where necessary or appropriate, we list only a range:

Tickets $X-X

Preferred student rate disclaimer (per Student Activities):

Phi Phi Chapter

Capitalize when referring to Harper College's honors program, which was established in 1974.

Phi Theta Kappa

Capitalize. Use when referring to the international honor society of two-year colleges, which was established in 1918.

phone numbers

See telephone numbers.

professor

Do not abbreviate. Lower case before a name unless starting a sentence with professor.

See also academic titles.

QuikPay

Standard phrasing should be: Pay in Full/Quik Pay

room numbers

The room number begins with the building letter, such as Building C, Room C102. Do not separate the building letter and room number: J137, not J 137.

Some room numbers have a sub-letter, such as A137c and H160k. In those cases, the sub-letter should be lower case.

See building names.

regions

The five regions of the United States should always be capitalized:

Northeast
Southeast
Midwest
Southwest
West

Adjective forms of regions should also be capitalized:

Northeastern Southeastern Midwestern
Southwestern Western

Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC)

ROTC is acceptable in all references. Use a specific service if known: Army ROTC, Air Force ROTC.

RSVP, R.S.V.P.

See acronyms.

seasons

Lower case spring, summer, fall and winter, unless part of a formal name: Summer Registration, Fall Orientation

semester

Lower case except at the start of a sentence

spring semester, fall semester, but summer session

signature block (email)

Official Harper format for e-mail signature blocks is as follows:

First Name, Last Name

Title

Department, Building

Street Address

City, State ZIP

Phone

Fax

Web

Facebook/Twitter/Harper College linked logos (optional)

Example:

William Rainey Harper

Founder

Marketing Services Center, Building S

1200 West Algonquin Road

Palatine, Illinois 02139

ph 847.925.6001

fx 847.925.6002

harpercollege.edu

NOTE: Personal sayings are often found at the end of e-mail signatures. Although Harper College values the individuality of each staff member, these sayings may be found to be offensive by email recipients, no matter the sender's intent. As such, personal sayings should not be included in e-mail signatures associated with Harper business-related email communication.

spacing

In writing, especially for news releases and all printed materials, use one space after a period at the end of a sentence instead of two spaces as in the English grammar style.

spring

See seasons.

summer

See seasons.

T – Z

telephone numbers

Harper has a history of using periods to separate the telephone numbers. According to AP, figures and parentheses around the area code are used to keep a consistency with a format the telephone companies established.

However, since Harper’s format has been used for an extended period of time, the following should be used for all Harper telephone numbers:

847.123.4567
800.123.4567

For telephone extensions: ext. 6100, 847.925.6000, ext. 6100

theater

Use this spelling with the ending -er for all uses except when referring to a proper name of a Theatre: J Theatre

See J Theatre, J Theatre Box Office, the Daily Herald Box Office, Drama Lab.

time

Do not use :00 with times: 7 to 8 a.m., 8 to 9 a.m., 6:30 p.m.

Lower case a.m. and p.m. See a.m./p.m.

Do not use o’clock with times.

Noon or midnight is preferred for 12 p.m. and 12 a.m.

Only use from with to:

Correct: from 9 to 10 a.m.

Incorrect: from 9-10 a.m.

See dashes, dates, midnight, noon.

toward

Never towards

under-represented

See hyphens.

URL

The URL is the Internet address. Avoid breaking an Internet address in text. When the address does not fit on a line, then break it into two or more lines without adding a hyphen.

If a URL is at the end of a sentence, do not end the sentence with a period:

Correct: Visit harpercollege.edu/fasttrack

Incorrect: Visit harpercollege.edu/fasttrack.

Web, the

When appearing in reference to the World Wide Web, Web is capitalized.

web-based

Always hyphenated

website

Always one word; never two

web page

Always two words, both lower case

William Rainey Harper College

See Harper College.

winter

See seasons.

withdrawal

World Wide Web

Three words, no hyphens. On second reference, the Web

year

Use figures, no commas: 1995.

Add no apostrophes when plural: 1990s, 1970s, 1950s.

See dates.

year-end, year end

Hyphenate when used as an adjective directly before the noun; two words when referenced as a noun itself.

The year-end audit will take place in June.

At year end, we will be performing our regular audit.

You're Just A Click Away From Going Forward®

ZIP code

ZIP-All caps for Zoning Improvement Plan. Lower case code. Do not put a comma between the state name and the ZIP code: Palatine, IL 60067.

See addresses.
