

Harper hosts visiting artists' exhibits, student works and juried exhibitions throughout the year. All shows are free and open to the public.

Sandra Perlow
Remind Me Again, 2007

SANDRA PERLOW: EXTRA ROOMY

JANUARY 20 – FEBRUARY 13

In her exhibition's title Extra Roomy, Sandra Perlow refers to the ever-growing urban environment from which she gleans inspiration for her mixed-media paintings. Perlow has made her paintings in Chicago and exhibited them around the country for nearly thirty years.

Special Events: Wednesday, February 4

Slide Lecture: 1:15 – 2 p.m.

Painting Studio, Building C,
Room C201

Reception/Discussion

with the Artist: 2 – 3 p.m.

Art Exhibition Space, Building C,
Room C200

LAURA MACKIN: DAVIS PROJECTION

FEBRUARY 23 – MARCH 19

For years, Laura Mackin has collected pictures of mirrors for sale on eBay. Using the images reflected in the mirrors, she has pieced together one seller's backyard. This view into a stranger's life unfolds in the exhibition through books, photographs and projected animation. Mackin lives and works in Chicago.

Special Events: Thursday, March 5

Slide Lecture: 11:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Painting Studio, Building C, Room C201

Reception/Discussion with the Artist: 12:15 – 1 p.m.

Art Exhibition Space, Building C, Room C200

Laura Mackin
Davis (video still), 2008

31ST ANNUAL SMALL WORKS EXHIBITION

MARCH 30 – APRIL 23

Small Works highlights work selected from entries by artists from across the country. The show typically features a wide array of media including photography, prints, painting and fiber. The Harper College Educational Foundation sponsors this exhibit, which will be juried by Debora Wood, Senior Curator of the Mary and Leigh Block Museum of Art at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Wood specializes in twentieth-century art and the history and study of prints.

STUDENT JURIED EXHIBITION

MAY 4 – MAY 15

This annual exhibition includes works in various media and styles by students who have taken art courses throughout the year. The work in the exhibit is selected by an artist or arts professional who is invited to be the juror.

Special Events: Wednesday, May 6

Reception/Discussion with the Artists: 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Art Exhibition Space, Building C, Room C200