CHRISTOPHER MEERDO: REITERATION

AUGUST 23 – SEPTEMBER 23

Rooted in the photographic process, the work of Christopher Meerdo examines the concepts of memory and nostalgia. He addresses these issues through various avenues, often relying on personal and family history. Meerdo's rapidly expanding resume includes national and international exhibitions.

Special Events: Wednesday, September 15

Slide Lecture: 1:15 p.m.

Painting Studio, Building C, Room C201

Reception/Discussion with the Artist: 2:15 p.m.

(trans)MARK

OCTOBER 4 – NOVEMBER 4

Guest curator Margaret Buchen has assembled an exciting group of artists who use printmaking techniques in non-traditional ways. (trans)MARK will include diverse work, by local and national artists, that expands the concept of the multiple or reproduced image. Buchen is an artist, a Harper instructor and the curator of the College's more than 300-piece permanent collection.

Special Events: Wednesday, October 20

Panel Discussion: 11:30 a.m.

Sculpture Studio, Building L, Room L126
