Fall 2013 EXHIBITS

Garland Martin Taylor: Struggle Lasts Always, 2012

Harper hosts visiting artists' exhibits, student works and juried exhibitions throughout the year. All events are held in the Exhibition Space (except as noted), and are free and open to the community, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

FACULTY EXHIBITION

August 26–September 26, 2013

Harper's studio art faculty are dedicated to making and exhibiting their own work, which collectively represents a wide range of concept and material approaches. This biennial exhibition allows the artists to share their work with students, colleagues and the community.

GRITTY PRETTY: THE ART OF GARLAND MARTIN TAYLOR

October 7–November 7, 2013

The sculptural work of Garland Martin Taylor is raw with a refined attention to detail. Inspired by ritualistic African power figures, his pieces tell a very personal narrative with a nod to history. Taylor lives in Chicago and works at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Learn more at garlandmartintaylor.com.
