

'60s and '70s: Reflections on Cultural Change

Explore the culture changes of the 60's and 70's through movies, poetry, and literature.

LIT115-L01, CRN 37657
Instructor: Andrew Wilson
 MW 12:30pm-1:45pm
 IAI H3 901

Receive Humanities (LIT112) and Interdisciplinary Studies (LIT115) credits.

LIT112-L01, CRN 37656
Instructor: Anthony Romano
 MW 2:00pm-3:15pm
 IAI HF 908

Total Credits: 6

Abriendo Puertas: Education as an Agent for Social Change

This course will focus on strategies to help LatinX, first generation, and other groups of students feel empowered and ready to be successful in college-level courses. The linked courses will also provide opportunities to explore and harness students' cultural capital in order to effect change in their lives and communities.

FYS 101-L01, CRN 38387 (Focus on College Learning)
Instructor: Adam Lopez
 TR 9:30am-10:45am

ENG100-L01, CRN 38388
Instructor: Marianne Fontes
 TR 11:00am-12:40pm

Total Credits: 7

Defense Against the Dark Arts

No; this isn't a required course at Hogwarts, but it will illuminate the value of required courses in subjects most students have never heard of while fulfilling requirements to take English 101 and FYS as your Start Smart. Students will understand the difference between a college education and a college degree while offering strategic insights to help students differentiate themselves from their peers, and gain a competitive advantage in both academic and professional circles.

FYS101-LB3 (Liberal Arts), CRN 38396
Instructor: Shante Holley
 M 12:30pm-1:45pm

ENG101-L03, CRN 38395
Instructor: Paul Peterson
 MWF 11:00am-11:50am
 IAI C1 900

Total Credits: 6

Excel in Accounting

Students explore the functions and features of Excel in CAS 115 and CAS 215 while applying those skills, using a hands-on approach, to the practical managerial applications of the business world in ACC 102.

ACC102-LB1, CRN 38352
Instructor: Dawn McKinley
 M 9:30am-10:45am
 IAI BUS 904

CAS115-LB7, CRN 38353
 CAS215-LB8, CRN 38354
Instructor: Enrique D'Amico
 W 9:30am-10:45am

Total Credits: 5

Focus on Your Future: Writing Moves that Matter

In this Learning Community, students will understand the connection that writing has to their future success. Students who are undecided or exploring will learn how to connect their life goals with career options and how to write a plan for their future.

FYS101-L02, CRN 38392
Instructor: Sara Piraino
 TR 8:00am-9:15am

ENG101-L02, CRN 38391
Instructor: Stephanie Horton
 TR 9:30am-10:45am
 IAI C1 900

Total Credits: 6

Forging an Unlikely Bond: Chemistry and English for STEM Majors

Learn not only how to write a better lab report, but also how to write about topics in Chemistry in ways that anyone can understand.

ENG101-L04, CRN 37651
Instructor: Meg King
 TR 9:30am-10:45am
 IAI C1 900

CHM 121-L04, CRN 37650
Instructor: Karen Dailey
 TR 11:00am-12:15pm
 T 12:30pm-3:15pm
 R 12:30pm-1:20pm
 IAIP1 902L, IAI CHM 911

Total Credits: 8

From the Earth to the Moon: Science and Film

Explore the history of science (or lack thereof) in film in the new learning community entitled From the Earth to the Moon.

Receive non-lab Physical Science and Humanities (with World Cultures and Diversity) credit.

MCM200-L01, CRN 38290

Instructor: Brian Shelton

TR 11:00am-12:15pm

IAI F2 909

ESC101-L01, CRN 38288

Instructor: Margaret Geppert

TR 12:30 PM - 01:45 PM

IAI P1 907

Total Credits: 6

How the Best College Students Succeed

"I'm just not a math person..." "I suck at writing papers..." Statements like these are rooted in limiting beliefs and toxic thinking that can completely derail a college career before it even begins. Students will challenge all of their assumptions about learning and what it really takes to succeed in the classroom, and beyond. Students will also develop fundamental skills and strategies that will help them thrive in each of their classes.

ENG097-L04, CRN 38398

Instructor: Shante Holley

MW: 9:30am-10:45am

MW: 11:00am-11:50am

FYS101-L04, CRN 38399 (Focus on College

Learning)

Instructor: Paul Peterson

MW: 12:30pm-1:45pm

Total Credits: 7

Illusions and Illuminations: American Perceptions of the Holocaust (Honors Only)

Explore and discover what Americans knew—and know—about horrific event known as the Holocaust through intense examination of historical documents, literature, and film.

Receive Interdisciplinary Studies (LIT112) and Social and Behavioral Sciences (HST112) credits.

LIT112-HL2, CRN 38401

Instructor: Kurt Hemmer

MW 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM

IAI HF 908

HST112-HL2, CRN 38400

Instructor: Leslye Smith

MW 12:30 PM - 01:45 PM

IAI S2 901

Total Credits: 6

On Beauty and Ugliness

Earn 6 hours of credit discovering the principles of beauty and artistic taste. Learn how to critique, discuss, and write about various forms of artistic expression and human creativity.

Receive two Humanities (PHI105 and HUM105) credits.

PHI105-L01, CRN 38390

Instructor: Stephanie Adair

TR 11:00am 12:15pm

IAI H4 900

HUM105-L01, CRN 38389

Instructor: Therese Hart

TR 12:30pm 1:45pm

IAI H9900

Total Credits: 6

Publicly Speaking, Privately Writing

Investigate the dynamic interaction between speaking and writing.

SPE101-L05, CRN 37653

Instructor: Patti Ferguson

TR 9:30am 10:45am

IAI C2 900

ENG101-L05, CRN 37652

Instructor: Seema Kurup

TR 11:00am 12:15pm

IAI C1 900

Total Credits: 6

Rock and Roll

Earn 6 hours of credit exploring the history and intersections of contemporary images and texts. Learn how to interpret, write about, and engage with the current worlds of art and literature.

Receive Humanities (LIT105) credit.

LIT105-L01, CRN 37655

Instructor: Magdalen McKinley

TR 11:00am-12:15pm

IAI H3 903

ENG102-L01, CRN 37654

Instructor: Kurt Hemmer

TR 12:30pm-1:45pm

IAI C1 901R

Total Credits: 6