

Harper College/Northwood University

Sample 3+1 Curriculum Guide for students with an Associate in Applied Science Degree-Hospitality Management

Northwood University in cooperation with Harper College has designed a program that permits Harper College students to complete the third year of a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree Program through specific courses that are comparable to courses required in the Northwood program.

Northwood University considers all lower level General Education Core courses fulfilled by the General Education Core requirements of the Harper College associate degree programs.

The following curriculum guide provides an example of third year courses that can be completed at Harper College and transferred in to the Northwood University Bachelor of Business Administration Degree Program. Since each Associate Degree curriculum is unique, it is important that you contact Northwood University near the end of your associate degree program to discuss your individual course selections.

The following courses are required for the Northwood Degree Program and should be selected as Associate Degree electives:

- CIS 100 – Computer Literacy (CIS 101 preferred)
- FSM 230 – Hospitality Law and Risk Management
