

THE DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAM between Harper College’s Applied Science (AAS) degrees and Roosevelt University’s Fast Track Bachelor of Professional Studies degree in Organizational Leadership provides adult students at HARPER COLLEGE the opportunity to complete a bachelor’s degree developed for adult learners in less time than it would take to complete a traditional bachelor’s degree.

HARPER COLLEGE AND ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY
DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAM
AAS Degrees to Fast Track BPS Degree in Organizational Leadership

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

At Roosevelt University, students will get the benefits of a private university: small classes, individual attention, and responsiveness to student needs. Roosevelt works with students to make a private school education affordable. Roosevelt University has a generous scholarship program that recognizes outstanding academic achievement. The financial aid office helps Roosevelt students secure the financial assistance they need to get the college education they want. And, the time-shortened nature of the Fast Track degree saves students time and money.

At Harper College, students complete all requirements for the AAS degree.

At Roosevelt University, students take the following course of study:

BGS 201	Pro-Seminar in Critical Skills	6 SH
BGS 290	Tech & Quantitative Literacy	3 SH
OLED 330	Foundations of Org. Leadership	3 SH
OLED 320	Intro. to Org. Communication	3 SH
OLED 325	Org. Communication II	3 SH
OLED 335	Organizational Change	3 SH
OLED 365	Diversity in the Workplace	3 SH

(Students earn a certificate after completion of the above courses.)

CATALOG

This fact sheet provides basic information about the academic program at Roosevelt. Roosevelt’s Undergraduate Catalog, however, is the official statement of requirements and policies. Students can access the Roosevelt catalog at www.roosevelt.edu/catalog.

OLED 350	Decision-Mkg. & Group Dynamics	3 SH
OLED 380	Strategy, Vision, & Planning	3 SH

Interdisciplinary seminars:

BGS 390	Seminar in Social Sciences	6 SH
BGS 391	Seminar in Natural Sciences	6 SH
BGS 392	Seminar in Humanities	6 SH
BGS 399	Senior Thesis	3 SH

HARPER/ROOSEVELT DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAM FOR THE FAST TRACK BACHELOR OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES IN ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Students who complete their AAS in Management at HARPER COLLEGE can complete a bachelor’s degree in as few as 51 additional semester hours.

Semester hours at Roosevelt University: 51 SH

Plus any additional English composition based on placement on the Roosevelt University Assessment (no more than 6 semester hours.)

GRADUATE SCHOOL OPPORTUNITIES

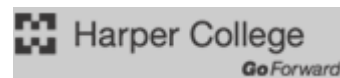

If their long-term goal is a master’s degree, students can earn both the bachelor’s and the master’s in the time it would take to complete a traditional bachelor’s degree.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students will submit applications for admission and official transcripts from all colleges attended to the Roosevelt University Office of Admissions. A minimum GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale (C average) is required for admission. All entering students take the Roosevelt University Assessment (RUA) to determine placements in English and mathematics.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

All students must complete a minimum of 30 semester hours at Roosevelt University.

THE BACHELOR OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES DEGREE AT ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY

The Fast Track Bachelor of Professional Studies (BPS) degree is a fully accredited bachelor’s degree program designed exclusively for adults 24 years or older. By combining interdisciplinary general education seminars with strong academic majors, you can earn a BPS degree in up to one-third less time than it takes to earn a traditional bachelor’s degree.

The Fast Track Bachelor of Professional Studies program began at Roosevelt University in 1966, making it one of the oldest adult degree programs in the Chicago area. It has over 8,000 graduates, and it is the largest single degree program at Roosevelt University.

Flexibility is a key component of this degree program. Its small classes encourage interactive communities of learners. You can take as many or as few courses each semester as you choose, balancing school with the demands of work and family.

The Fast Track Bachelor of Professional Studies degree offers special options for transfer students. Degree completion options like the one outlined on this sheet are designed specifically for community college graduates. The Transitions to Graduate Study program helps adult students earn both a master’s and a bachelor’s degree in the time it would take to earn a traditional bachelor’s degree alone.

ACADEMIC MAJOR IN ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The major in Organizational Leadership prepares you for leadership roles in a global economy and evolving workforce. You’ll study topics most contemporary organizations are facing such as diversity, organizational change, decision-making, group dynamics, conflict resolution and negotiation. Communication is the basis of effective leadership, and two courses in organizational communication form the foundation of this program. A five-course certificate is embedded into the degree program, and the entire degree program is available in a fully online format via the internet.

THE EVELYN T. STONE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

For more than thirty years, the Evelyn T. Stone University College has been a local and national leader in adult education, opening the door to higher education for thousands of non-traditional students. University College focuses its efforts in three areas: Innovation, Outreach, and Student-Centeredness. In both the content of its programs and the methods it uses to deliver these programs, University College strives to respond to needs in the market and to make a Roosevelt University education attainable by all interested and academically qualified persons.

In addition to the Fast Track Bachelor of Professional Studies and Bachelor of General Studies degrees, University College is home to the Manfred Steinfeld School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, the Master of Arts in Training and Development, and the Lawyer’s Assistant Program. Within University College, the Partners in Education program, the External Studies Program, the Department of Human and Community Renewal, and RUOnline deliver Roosevelt University academic programs to the community.

University College is proud to bear the name of Evelyn T. Stone, an early supporter of Roosevelt University and a lifelong champion of education.

Information about programs in University College:
Chicago: 312-281-3134
Schaumburg: 847-619-8730

THE COLLEGES

Harper College

Harper College began in 1965 to serve community needs. It continues that mission, and the community continues its support of the college. Harper is committed to helping students of all ages, experiences, and backgrounds achieve success in the classroom and beyond. To this end, Harper College offers a full range of credit and non-credit courses, transfer programs, career training opportunities, professional development and personal enrichment.

Roosevelt University

Roosevelt University is a privately supported, nondenominational institution of higher learning serving metropolitan Chicago. The university has provided educational opportunity to all academically qualified individuals since its founding in 1945. More than 7,000 students attend classes at Roosevelt’s campuses in Chicago and Schaumburg and online.