Why Business EdVantage?

The same great tuition rate no matter where your employees live.

Harper College's Business EdVantage program allows your employees who live outside of Harper's district, but work at your in-district organization, to take college credit courses at in-district rates. This represents a savings of hundreds of dollars per credit hour for your employees.

Grow your talent pool from within.

Whether your employees recently graduated high school or have been out of the classroom for years, Harper is the right place to start.

Offer incredible opportunities to your employees, at no cost to your company.

Joining Harper College's Business EdVantage program is free. To join, go to harpercollege.biz and click on Business EdVantage.

Companies must be within the Harper College district in order to participate. If you're not sure that your company is in the Harper District, contact the One Stop to find out.

Where is Harper's District? You may take advantage of Harper's low tuition rates – no matter where you live – if your employer is located in: Arlington Heights, Barrington, Barrington Hills, Elk Grove Village, Inverness, Lake Barrington, Mount Prospect, North Barrington, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Rolling Meadows, Schaumburg, South Barrington, Tower Lakes, Wheeling or portions of Hoffman Estates, Deer Park, Buffalo Grove, Carpentersville, Des Plaines, Roselle and Fox River Grove.

Who's Eligible? Conditions of the Agreement Employees enrolling at the College under this Agreement must be residents of Illinois or an adjacent state and are responsible only for the current in-district tuition rate including prevailing fees. An authorized representative shall be appointed by the participating organization to administer employee participation. This individual will be authorized to provide each out-of-district student with an Employment Certification Statement (forms furnished by Harper College) for each semester or session. The student must present the completed Employment Certification Statement or alternative verification of employment at the time he/she registers for classes.
