

FYS First Year Seminar

FYS 101 First Year Seminar (1-0 to 3-0) 1-3 crs.

Focuses on developing critical thinking and information literacy skills to make better-informed decisions regarding college and career planning. Special emphasis is given to the questions, methods, and career and college options relating to an area of academic or thematic interest. Additional information about material to be covered will be available with pre-registration materials each time that the course is offered.