

Student Right to Know Act

The Federal government, under the Student Right to Know Act, requires that all colleges and universities report graduation or completion rates and, if applicable, transfer-out rates for new full-time, degree or certificate-seeking students. Information for Harper College is available at: www.harpercollege.edu/about/consumerinfo/studentright.php

Hard copies are available upon request.