A groundbreaking school alliance

It is an idea that makes so much sense that it doesn't seem possible that it could be groundbreaking.

The wonder is that it is news at all.

The wonder is that it hasn't been done before.

Our View

Harper College and its feeder public school districts want to work together, and the results could be far-reaching.

Harper College, under the vision of President Kenneth Ender, has been espousing an interconnected approach to education for the better part of a year. With this partnership, it indeed is putting its money where its mouth is. The college will seed the partnership with $250,000 to
