Lamon: Nothing but Net

With Lamon Barry at InZone, you can do something many students will have to wait years to experience: learn about basketball from a college coach. Lamon, assistant basketball coach for Harper's men's team, developed his love of the game at an early age.

Since then, he has turned his passion to teaching others how to strengthen their skills and dominate the game. Meet Lamon on the court and fine-tune your ball handling, passing, shooting and footwork to outplay your opponents.

Sign up for Lamon's favorites:
