Assessment at Harper

Assessment at Harper is comprehensive, and the annual cycle includes:

- All academic departments, through either program or course assessment
- General Education assessment is conducted in a random selection of sections
- Noninstructional departments

The intent of learning outcomes assessment is to identify strengths and weaknesses and then implement changes in an effort to make meaningful improvements.
Course-level Assessment

- Departments without A.A.S. degrees and courses identified as part of the “0-15” initiative

- Participation rates have increased over time, reaching 100% in 2016-17 (26/26 departments)

- Example: Chemistry
Program-level Assessment

- Departments with A.A.S. degrees or career certificates of 30+ credit hours

- Participation rates have increased over time, reaching 100% in 2015-16 (37/37 departments)

General Education Assessment

- General Education Outcomes: Communication, Critical Thinking, Diverse Perspectives and Cultures, Information Literacy, and Quantitative Reasoning
- All courses are mapped to General Education Outcomes
- Five-year cycle to ensure all outcomes are assessed regularly
- Assessments conducted using random selection, focusing on students nearing graduation
- Formal improvement plans are developed and implemented after each large-scale assessment
General Education Assessment

■ 2016-17 Diverse Perspectives & Cultures assessment:
  - Conducted in courses that meet the World Cultures and Diversity graduation requirement
  - Student skills did not reach the expected level
  - 41.7% of students stated they discussed these topics never, very little, or only outside of class
  - Improvement Plan focuses on faculty development (Community of Practice focus, Graduate Equivalency course, additional workshops, etc.)
Continued Focus on Improvement

- Meaningful assessment requires use of results for improvement.
- Departments identify Use of Results when the criterion for success is not met; many departments make improvements even when the criterion is met.
