If the project is projected to exceed the 180 day period, then it must be submitted for reclassification via the workforce request process. Employees in this classification are not eligible for SURS, but participate in the Federal Social Security System.

This introductory period allows for both the employee and the College to evaluate the appropriateness of the employment relationship. A review will be conducted prior to the end of the introductory period.

Introductory period for a non-exempt employee is 3 months.

Generally, benefits such as vacation days are not available during the introductory period. If the employee does not successfully complete the introductory period, no benefits shall accrue.

C. Workweek

The workweek is defined as the period from 12:00 a.m. Monday through 11:59 p.m. Sunday. The number of hours in the normal workweek is currently 37.5 and is prescribed by the Board of Trustees. A. General Qualifications

Promotion or transfer from one position to another shall be based on job qualifications, performance, service and the needs of the College.

B. Promotion of College Employees

A regular employee wishing to apply for another position may make a request for the particular position following the appropriate on-line guidelines. Employees must complete the introductory period of their initial position with the College before applying for a promotion.

The promoted employee must complete an introductory period for the new non-exempt position of three (3) months.

An employee selected for promotion to a classification with a higher pay level will receive a salary increase of nine percent (9%). The resulting increase shall not exceed the midpoint of the new salary range.

A regular employee who is appointed by an Executive Council member to a temporary position assignment for thirty (30) consecutive work days or more, which is normally paid at a higher salary level than the employee's regular position, may receive a temporary stipend not to exceed 10% for the duration of the temporary assignment.

C. Reclassification

1. If an employee believes that his/her job classification may no longer be correct due to significant changes in the job duties and/or responsibilities of the position, the employee may obtain a position classification study form from the Human Resources Department, complete it and submit the request to his/her immediate dean/director. The written request shall include the reason(s) for the job evaluation study and detail the significant changes in the job duties and/or responsibilities.
2. The dean/director shall review the request and respond to the employee within twenty (20) working days.

5. The two (2) completed forms shall be returned to the dean/director and he/she shall review the responses to determine that the responsibilities accurately represent the duties and responsibilities of the position. Any discrepancies shall be reviewed with the employee and corrected prior to forwarding the completed forms to the Human Resources Department for evaluation. The completed forms must be received by the Human Resources Department between January 15 and February 15 of each year.
6. Based on the results of the evaluation, a determination will be made as to whether there have been significant changes in job duties and/or responsibilities to warrant a change in level. The results of the evaluation will be sent to the dean/director by March 15 of that year for discussion with the employee.

7. Should the employee disagree with the evaluation decision, the employee may appeal the decision and submit his/her written rationale for the appeal to the appropriate Executive Council member by April 1 of that year. The Vice President shall review the evaluation and issue a final decision by May 1 of that year. The decision of the Executive Council member shall be final and non-precedential.

- 3) Refer the employee to the College physician for further evaluation in relation to work activity.

7. In the case of an extended illness when all available sick leave has been exhausted, any unused personal business days and unused vacation time will be used, in that order, to extend paid sick leave. In the event an employee has been out for a period of 12 months, the College has the right to terminate the employment relationship subject to any applicable ADA accommodation obligations as determined by the College. Any unused vacation time will be paid out as a lump sum payment to the employee and any unused sick time will be reported to SURS.

The College shall compensate the employee, who is required to serve as a juror or witness during a working day on which he/she otherwise would have been scheduled to work, for his/her regular salary during such a period of leave. The employee shall present proof of such service to their Supervisor and may retain the jury duty compensation and any witness reimbursement fees.

The College provides an option to purchase voluntary life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance. Employees may select 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 times their annual base salary up to a maximum of $500,000. Underwriting guidelines will apply.

G. State Universities Retirement System - Death and Survivor's Benefits

Employees may be eligible for death and survivor's benefits from SURS provided the employee had at least eighteen (18) months' service. Further information is available in the Member Guide provided by the State Universities Retirement System, or by visiting their web site, www.surs.org.

H. Disability Leaves

1. Short-Term Disability

After 30 days of employment, the College provides the employee with short-term disability insurance. In the event of a disability, short-term disability benefit payments extend for a maximum of twenty six (26) weeks from the date of disability and would begin after the expiration of accrued sick, personal business, and vacation time. Payments are equal to approximately sixty percent (60%) of normal weekly salary up to a maximum of Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500) per month. Appropriate medical certifications of disability will be required by the insurance carrier.

FMLA leave is counted simultaneously with the use of any paid time (i.e. sick, vacation, personal business) the college provides for any disability benefits the employee may be eligible to receive.

Insurance coverage, while the employee is on short-term disability, will be paid by the College at the same rate as if the employee were actively at work. The employee will still be responsible for paying his/her share of insurance coverage.

2. Long-Term Disability

When a disabled employee has exhausted all accrued paid time off or benefits under the Short-Term Disability plan (maximum twenty-six [26] weeks from date of disability), additional protection is provided at no cost for as long as the employee is totally disabled and unable to engage in any employment.

Benefit payments are approximately sixty percent (60%) of monthly earnings up to a maximum of Four Thousand Five Hundred dollars ($4,500) per month.

The monthly benefit payments will be reduced by any amount received from other sponsored disability benefit plans, such as Social Security.

Insurance coverage will be paid by the College at the same rate as if the employee were actively at work until the earlier of 365 days of absence or the commencement of Long-Term Disability benefits.

I. Worker's Compensation Act

Harper College operates under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act, which provides for medical expenses and partial salary compensation for accidental injury claims.

Employees who are injured during working hours at Harper College must immediately report the accident to their supervisor and obtain appropriate medical care from Health Service. It is important that an official report of the accident be initiated, even if the injury does not seem to warrant medical attention.

If an employee is absent from work due to a work related injury or illness, the College must receive proper documentation from the employee's physician to verify the absence. Accumulated sick leave cannot be used for absences due to a Workers' Compensation injury or illness. Instead the Workers' Compensation carrier will send the employee a compensation check for part of the employee's salary. The College shall pay the employee the difference between Workers' Compensation disability payments and the employee's full wages for the first ninety (90) calendar days of any work related absence. This College reimbursement will be paid in a lump sum at the end of the ninety (90) calendar day period or the end of the disability period, whichever comes first.

An injured employee must immediately secure a letter from a physician stating inability to perform normal duties in order to begin receiving Workers' Compensation benefits. Depending on the length of disability, further written statements will be requested.

Questions concerning coverage and how it may affect the employee's salary and benefits should be referred to the Human Resources Department.

SECTION IV. PAYROLL PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

I. PAYDAYS

Wages are paid on a bi-weekly basis. All employees will receive their pay either through direct deposit or through a Pay Card. The authorization agreement for direct deposit can be submitted on line in the Employee Self Service function of Oracle.

II. PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

A. Withholding Tax

Federal and state tax deductions are based on tax tables and the number of exemptions claimed by an employee on the W-4 forms. Should exemption status change, another W-4 form should be submitted on line to the Payroll Department using the Employee Self Service function of Oracle.

B. Medicare Deduction

Medicare contributions (currently of 1.45 percent {1.45%}) are deducted from the earnings of employees who were hired after March 31, 1986, in compliance with federal legislation. Contribution amounts may be adjusted based on changes in Medicare requirements.

C. State Universities Retirement System

All employees except temporary, intermittent, contingent and student employees are eligible to participate in the State Universities Retirement System.

Retirement contributions currently totaling eight percent (8%) are deducted from the earnings of an employee participating in the State Universities Retirement System. Contribution amounts may be adjusted based on changes in SURS requirements.

Contributions for SURS are deducted on a pre-tax basis.

An employee who terminates employment with the College before retirement may apply for a refund from SURS.

Further information is available in the Member Guide provided by the State Universities Retirement System or by visiting their web site www.surs.org.

D. Community College Health Insurance Plan

Contributions currently of one half of one percent (.005%) are deducted from the earnings of Insurance benefit eligible employees for the Community College Health Insurance Program. This plan was established by SURS to provide health insurance benefits to eligible retirees. Contribution amounts may be adjusted based on changes in the State requirements.

Further information is available in the Member Guide provided by the State Universities Retirement System or by visiting their web site www.surs.org.

E. Garnishment of Wages

Harper College is required to comply with Illinois garnishment rules as outlined in the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, Article XII, Chapter 7: Garnishment and Part 8. Wage Deductions.

F. Tax-Sheltered Annuity Program (403b & 457 plans)

A Tax-Sheltered Annuity Program is available to regular full-time and part-time employees of the College. Questions concerning this plan should be referred to the Human Resources Department.

III. NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE OF STATUS

It is the responsibility of the individual employee to notify the Human Resources Department of any change of status in personal information, address or insurance coverage. This should be done through the Employee Self-Service function of Oracle. Please Note: Name changes cannot be processed without a copy of the new Social Security Card with the new name.

SECTION V. OVERTIME AND PREMIUM PAY

I. OVERTIME (Non-Exempt Employees Only)

- A. Overtime must be approved in advance by the appropriate supervisor and administrator. Exceptions to this rule may be sought in emergencies, with the approval of the Chief Human Resources Officer. Failure to comply with this regulation may result in the loss of overtime pay.
- B. Overtime for a non-exempt employee is paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times the basic rate of pay. An employee must work the regularly assigned hours during the workweek in order to qualify for the overtime rate. Time lost due to illness, personal business, or leave without pay will not apply to the computation of the workweek. Vacation time, bereavement leave and holidays count as time worked for overtime calculation purposes.
- C. Non-exempt employees required to work on holidays will be paid two and one-half (2.5) times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked.

II. CALL-BACK PAY

A minimum of three (3) hours at the appropriate rate will be paid a Classified Staff (non-exempt) employee requested to return to work at a time not immediately before or after their regular workday due to unusual circumstances.

III. SUNDAY PAY

Two (2) times the regular rate of pay will be paid for work performed on Sunday by a regular Classified Staff (non-exempt) employee who is required to work on Sunday (in addition to their regular schedule).

IV. FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT (FLSA)

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) is a federal law which requires that most employees in the United States be paid at least the federal minimum wage for all hours worked and overtime pay at time and one-half the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in a workweek. However, certain employees are exempt from the minimum wage and overtime pay requirements of the FLSA.

To qualify for an overtime exemption, an employee must meet certain tests regarding job duties and generally must be paid on a “salary basis” at least $455 per week. Job titles do not determine whether an employee is exempt or not. In order for an exemption to apply, an employee’s specific job duties and salary must meet all the requirements of the Department of Labor.

Being paid on a salary basis means an employee regularly receives a predetermined amount of compensation each pay period. The predetermined amount cannot be reduced because of variations in the quality or quantity of the employee’s work. There are only certain circumstances in which the employer may make deductions from pay.

The following deductions from pay for an exempt employee are permissible:

- When the employee is absent from work for one or more full days for personal reasons other than sickness or disability;
- When the employee is absent from work for one or more full days due to sickness or disability, if the deduction is made in accordance with a bona fide plan, policy or practice of providing compensation for salary lost due to illness;
- To offset amounts received as jury pay, witness fees, or military pay;
- When the employee is on an unpaid disciplinary suspension for one or more full days, imposed in good faith for workplace conduct rule infractions; or
- When the employee takes unpaid leave under the Family Medical Leave Act.

It is the policy of the College to comply with the salary basis requirements of the FLSA and only make pay deductions for exempt employees as outlined above. We want employees to be aware of this policy and that the College does not allow deductions that violate the FLSA.

Employees are encouraged to review their pay slips and promptly report any problems with pay as soon as the employee becomes aware of the issue. If you believe that an improper deduction has been made to your salary, you should immediately report this to your direct supervisor, or to the Human Resources Department. Reports of improper deductions will be promptly investigated. If it is determined that an improper deduction has occurred, you will be promptly reimbursed for any improper deduction made.

SECTION VI. LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

I. SHORT-TERM LEAVE

A short-term leave of absence without pay may be granted to an employee with greater than three (3) years of service, for an aggregate period not to exceed thirty (30) working days. Leave may be pro-rated for employees with less than three (3) years of service. A short-term leave of absence without pay does not result in loss of service, status, or accrued sick leave. Any accrued vacation leave will be paid prior to the leave of absence. Benefits do not accrue during unpaid short-term leave. If requested, insurance coverage will be provided at the employee's expense during the period of the leave.

A request for a short-term leave of absence without pay must be approved by the immediate supervisor, the appropriate administrator, and the Chief Human Resources Officer. Reasonable cause for the request must be shown, and individual cases will be decided on their own merit. An employee granted a leave of absence not exceeding thirty (30) working days shall, upon return from leave, be reinstated in his/her original position.

II. LONG-TERM LEAVE

A leave of absence for a period of up to one (1) year without pay may be granted by the Board of Trustees. A request for leave of absence must be approved by the immediate supervisor, the appropriate Administrator and the Chief Human Resources Officer before being submitted to the Board of Trustees. If desired, insurance coverage will be provided at the employee's expense during the period of the leave. Upon indication that the employee wishes to return, the employee shall be reinstated in the same or like position, if such a position becomes available within ninety (90) calendar days from termination of the leave.

III. PARENTAL LEAVE

A regular full-time employee who has completed two (2) years of full-time service to the College shall be eligible for parental leave of absence, without pay or other benefits except for those benefits specifically identified in this Article, for up to one (1) year. The time period of the leave shall commence with or include the date of delivery of the baby. This section shall also apply to the adoption of a child under five (5) years of age. Such leave will entitle the employee to reinstatement, without loss of accumulated service, to the same or like position if such a position becomes available within ninety (90) calendar days from termination of the leave.

A request for parental leave of absence should normally be submitted in writing to the appropriate administrator or designee at least four (4) months prior to the start of the leave. The Parental Leave without pay goes into effect on the date of delivery however, the terms of the Family Medical Leave Act will apply concurrently for the designated 12 week FMLA period. Sick leave shall not be applicable during the period of parental leave that the mother is not certified as disabled.

As provided in the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the College will continue to pay for insurance coverage during the first 12 weeks of the Parental Leave. As a matter of information, any leave time used for the mother's disability prior to the date of birth, is counted as part of this total 12 week FMLA leave time. After the first 12 weeks of this FMLA leave time are used, the College will no longer make contributions for insurance coverage. However, you may continue to participate in the health and dental insurance provided that you pay the full cost of the medical and dental premiums.

IV. MILITARY SERVICE LEAVE

An employee shall be granted a leave of absence for the duration of the term of enlistment plus ninety (90) calendar days, upon submission of evidence of being drafted into the armed services or otherwise being placed in active duty. A person on military leave shall declare intention to return, in writing, to the Chief Human Resources Officer, a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of leave. Formal review and decisions may be obtained only by following the steps outlined below. If any of the steps have been bypassed, the administration will request that the procedure be followed to resolve the issue. Cases of discipline and dismissal during the introductory period of employment are not subject to the regular appeal procedure.

II. APPEAL PROCEDURE

The appeal procedure is as follows:

A. First Step

Within three (3) working days after the occurrence leading to the appeal becomes known, the employee must discuss it with the immediate supervisor. If no response is received within ten (10) working days of the conference, or the response is not satisfactory, the employee may proceed to the second step.

B. Second Step

The employee must submit the appeal in writing to the next appropriate supervisor or administrator, giving the reason for the appeal and the remedy sought. This must be done within five (5) working days of the receipt of the supervisor response and, in any event, no later than fifteen (15) working days after the occurrence leading to the appeal becomes known. D. Fourth Step

If the employee feels that the decision of the Executive Council member or the designee is arbitrary or capricious, a review of the appeal by the President of the College may be requested. Appeals to the President or a designee must be made in writing no later than ten (10) working days after receipt of the third step determination. The President or designee will review the case. If the President's review of the case determines that the decision was against the manifest weight of the information presented, an additional hearing may be held, or additional information requested, if needed.

An Employee Assistance Program is also available for employees and their immediate family members.

IV. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Individuals engaging in such prohibited activity shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination from this institution as determined by such administrative or Board action as is required by Illinois law or Board policy. This policy applies to acts of sexual harassment by any member of one sex against a member of the opposite or the same sex at all levels of the College community (i.e., supervisor/subordinate, faculty/student, employee/peer).

B. Reporting

1. If an employee believes that he/she has been sexually harassed, the employee should report the alleged act immediately to the Chief Human Resources Officer.
2. In the event that an Executive Council member is the employee against whom the complaint is filed, the complainant should report the alleged act to the President of the College.

E. Mandated Reporters

Under the requirements of the Illinois Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act (ANCRA), [325 ILCS 5/4], all Harper College employees are designated "mandated reporters." This requirement covers all regular full-time and part-time employees, temporary workers, and student workers.

1. What is required of a "mandated reporter"?

A "mandated reporter" is required to make a report to the state Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) Child Abuse Hotline number (1-800-252-2873) whenever the "mandated reporter" has reasonable cause to believe that a child known through the work capacity may be abused or neglected.

2. Why have college employees been given this designation?

A new amendment designates "personnel of higher education", all "athletic program or facility personnel" as mandated reporters as well as all student workers. This means that all employees must sign the DCFS Acknowledgement of Mandated Reporter Status Form and forward it to Human Resources. Prior to the amendment, only college employees working with children in the course of their regular duties were considered "mandated reporters" under the ANCRA.

F. Confidentiality

Harper College employees, including student employees, support a variety of College functions. Employees will, as part of their duties, need to access individual student or employee information from various sources, including, but not limited to, the Registrar's records, student loan records, student financial records, personnel records, and academic records. With respect to these records and information, and all other confidential and proprietary Harper College information and records, the employee has read, understands, and agrees to the following:

1. The employee acknowledges the confidentiality of all student and employee information, records, and other confidential and proprietary Harper College information. This information will not be revealed to, distributed to, or discussed with anyone other than the appropriate, designated supervisor and other College officials as designated by the supervisor. Employee further acknowledges and understands the Family Educational Right and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), which states that due to employment with Harper College, employee may have access to student individually identifiable information. Disclosure of this information to any unauthorized person could subject employee to criminal and civil penalties imposed by the FERPA law. Disclosure violates the Harper College policy on privacy rights for students, and could constitute just cause for disciplinary action including termination of employment.
2. The employee will not attempt to alter, change, modify, add, or delete student or employee record information or College documents unless specifically instructed to do so by the employee's supervisor or other College official.
3. The employee will access only the information specified and authorized by the supervisor. Access to information should be through normal office procedures for obtaining specific access to the information in written documents, computer files, student records, or other College information.
4. All procedures, creative work, written documents, records, computer programs, policies and materials are created and documented according to standards set by the supervisor and the Executive Management Team.

These materials are considered property of Harper College and not for public disclosure or use.

The employee understands that failure to abide fully by the above agreements is grounds for immediate discipline, up to and including dismissal from the work position and the College.
