Dear Members of the Harper Community:

The Profile is designed to acquaint you with Harper College. The College is known academically as one of the finest two-year colleges in the country, yet it is not uncommon to find residents in the area who are not familiar with Harper College. Because the College serves as a major educational, cultural and social resource in the northwest area, members of the Harper Community may wish to learn more about Harper and community colleges in general.

There are 224 full-time faculty and administrators at the College and an additional 330 professional, technical and classified staff members. A part-time faculty of approximately 600 serves Harper's students. The College is governed by an elected Board of Trustees composed of eight members. Everyone at Harper is committed to the service of the residents in the Harper district.

We hope that this booklet will give you another view of the College and assist you in securing information about Harper and its program.

Sincerely,

James J. McGrath

Introduction

William Rainey Harper College is a two-year public community college founded in 1965. The College offers the associate in arts and associate in science degrees and an associate in applied science degree in 60 career areas. In addition, there are more than 15 one-year certificate programs which prepare men and women of all ages for immediate employment. There are numerous other programs and services such as continuing education, the CAD/CAM Center, business management seminars, cultural affairs, women's studies, support services for hearing impaired students, and community counseling services.

The spirit of Harper College is reflected in its name. William Rainey Harper was a scholar, teacher, writer and administrator who devoted his life to the pursuit of excellence in education. As the first president of the University of Chicago, Dr. Harper initiated programs to bring education into the community for those who could not become resident students at a university. This concept was the basis for the establishment of the community college system in the United States and the eventual founding of William Rainey Harper College.

In 1967, Harper College opened with an enrollment of about 1,700 students. Today the College's enrollment stands at approximately 22,800 students of all ages participating in degree credit, continuing education, and extension courses at the Harper campus or at other locations throughout the district.

Harper College makes available degree credit and credit free offerings at many off-campus locations, including high schools, hospitals and public libraries.

The College's records contain more than 250,000 student records dating back to 1967 when the first classes were held. Many more area residents have come to the campus to attend forums, concerts, and cultural and athletic events.

For the many residents in the College community, Harper provides the opportunity for developing a career, completing the first two years of a bachelor's degree, learning new skills, retooling for career advancement or change, enriching the quality of one's life, or simply enjoying the discovery of new knowledge. In meeting the varied and changing educational needs of district residents, Harper College continues to be a dynamic institution, a community college in the truest sense of the term.

Mission Statement

The mission of William Rainey Harper College, as part of the system of public community colleges in Illinois, is to provide to District No. 512 residents a comprehensive postsecondary education which includes transfer, career, and continuing education programs. In addition to fulfilling this primary mission, Harper College also offers specialized programs and services in cooperation with local school districts, area business and industry, and other community colleges. The educational and cultural opportunities offered to students and community residents are developed and enhanced within the Harper College philosophy of academic excellence, service to the community, and innovative educational leadership.

Programs developed to meet the needs of the community are offered at reasonable cost to students, district taxpayers, and the State of Illinois. The ultimate goal of Harper College is to provide an educational environment that allows the individual the maximum opportunity to develop through successful learning experiences.

Illinois Community Colleges*

The System

Although the first public junior college in Illinois was established in Joliet in 1901, the Illinois Public Junior College Act was not passed until 1965. The Act was an outgrowth of the 1964 Master Plan published by the Illinois Board of Higher Education. This legislation, with subsequent amendments, is the basis for the present system of public community college districts in Illinois.

There are currently 39 public community college districts comprised of 52 colleges. Of those 39 districts, 37 have locally elected boards of trustees, one (Chicago) has a locally appointed board of trustees, and one (East St. Louis) has a local board of trustees appointed by the Governor. Thirty-five of the districts have a single college, although most have extension centers. Four districts are multi-college, with Chicago having nine colleges, Illinois Eastern having four colleges, and Black Hawk and DuPage having two colleges each. With the exception of State Community College of East St. Louis, each district has tax levy authority to provide local support for district operations. The 39 districts now include 97 percent of the State’s population and 92 percent of the territory in the State.

The Mission and Scope

Community colleges have excellence as their principle focus in satisfying the educational needs of the individuals and communities they serve.

Focusing on individual needs requires extensive student and instructional support services designed to analyze individual levels of educational attainment and then to respond with appropriate counseling, placement, and other types of special instructional assistance.

Focusing on community needs requires extensive cooperation with community agencies, organizations, businesses, industries, and educational institutions to identify the needs and address them in a manner which is both educationally and economically sound.

Once educational needs are identified, community colleges provide a broad range of educational programs and services to address them.

Accordingly, the following community college missions, together with their respective scopes which further delineate such missions, are identified.

- Provide Liberal Arts and Sciences Programs: Such programs shall be provided either to prepare students for transfer to four-year colleges and universities or to meet the personal educational goals of individuals throughout their lifetimes.

- Provide Occupational Programs: Such programs shall be vocational, technical, and semi-technical in nature and shall be for the purpose of providing job training, retraining, and/or upgrading of skills to meet both current and emerging local, regional, and state manpower needs.

- Provide Preparatory, Developmental, and Remedial Programs: Such programs shall include adult basic education, general education development, English as a second language, and any other instruction designed to prepare students for successful experiences in postsecondary education.

- Provide Public Service Programs: Such programs shall include community education activities of an instructional nature such as non-credit adult continuing education and hobby/leisure time activities and community service activities which may include workshops, seminars, forums, and enrichment activities.

Reprinted from General Information published by the Illinois Community College Board.
The Illinois Community College Board consists of nine members appointed by the Governor and one student member selected by the recognized Student Advisory Committee. Board members are appointed at large for six-year terms. The Chairman of the Board is selected by the Governor. The statutory responsibilities of the Board are planning and coordinating the programs and activities of the public community colleges. All colleges are governed by local boards of trustees.

College Finances
Funding for Harper

Harper College operating revenue comes from three major sources: student tuition, local taxes and state apportionment.

Student Tuition

The Board of Trustees annually establishes tuition for credit courses which is limited by law to one-third of the per capita cost. The current resident tuition is $27.00 per semester hour.

Tuition and fees for courses of a non-credit nature (courses which do not lead to a state-approved degree or certificate) cover the cost of instruction. No state or local tax monies are used to support these courses.

For 1987-88, tuition revenue is expected to be $6,126,565 which represents 19.83 percent of Harper College's operating fund income.

Local Taxes

All real estate property tax in the State of Illinois is used as the basis by which local educational institutions, under the authority of the law, determine the amount of tax revenue that can be made available to them. The tax rate is based on a percentage of the College district's equalized assessed valuation.

For 1987-88, the anticipated revenue from local taxes is $15,347,895 which represents 49.68 percent of Harper College's total operating fund income.

State Apportionment

The state funding formula is the method used to channel state money to the individual schools. The formula is cost-based and the money is distributed on the basis of enrolled students. The formula determines how much is needed to operate all the colleges for a year. The resource requirements are determined by using the actual enrollment from the prior two years, the unit cost (how much it cost per student two years past), and an adjustment for inflation in the areas of salaries, utilities, library materials and general costs plus other identified special needs. Then all local tax revenue is subtracted, and the state apportionment is supposed to be the amount remaining.

The bulk of this money is distributed through credit hour grants in seven instructional categories: Baccalaureate, Business, Technical Health, Remedial, and Adult Basic Education/General Studies. The College also receives money for grants to fund programs for disadvantaged students on a credit hour basis.

For 1987-88, state apportionment totals $6,547,126 which represents 21.19 percent of the College's total operating fund income.

Others

In addition to these major sources, Harper College obtains some revenue from student fees, chargebacks, interest on investments, sales and service fees, various federal and state grants, and corporate tax.

For 1987-88, the total revenue from these sources is $2,875,298 which represents 9.30 percent of the College's total income.
Harper College Budget

The Budget Process

The budget is more than a statistical tabulation of numbers that show anticipated revenue and expenditures. It is the financial interpretation of the ongoing educational program for one year beginning July 1 and ending June 30.

Budget planning is a continuous process designed to culminate in the development of a budget that accurately expresses the district's educational program for one year.

Evaluation of the budget at the end of a fiscal year must include an appraisal of the educational program and the total operation of the College.

Budget Philosophy

One of the cornerstones of William Rainey Harper College's philosophy is the commitment to involve faculty and students in the development and operation of the College. The sharing of authority requires a commensurate sharing of responsibility by the individuals or groups involved. The advisory role of the faculty and students is limited only by the ability of these groups to analyze problems and present recommendations to the faculty, administration, and Board of Trustees. The basis for this philosophy is the belief that the democratic process will ensure that Harper College continues to evolve as one of the outstanding community colleges in higher education.

Based upon this institutional philosophy, a budget philosophy has been developed that involves the faculty, administration, and cost center managers in the budget formulation and assigns responsibility to those who share in the authority to implement the budget. The following guidelines have been established:

1. The final authority for the adoption of the budget rests with the Board of Trustees and is based upon the recommendation of the President.

2. The President, in consultation with the three vice presidents, is responsible for balancing expenditures for programs within the framework of the budget based on overall institutional goals.

3. The Vice President of Administrative Services is responsible for the formulation, operation, and control of the adopted budget.

4. In order to obtain faculty and cost center manager involvement, the budget has been decentralized along organizational lines. A decentralized budget places responsibility at the operational level for budgetary planning. A given cost center manager is in the best position to set priorities for efficient operation based upon operating experience. As the budget formulation progresses and reductions are made collectively by all concerned in order to balance the budget, each manager becomes familiar with the operation of all cost centers that in total make up the budget. The result is a budget that faculty and cost center managers have agreed upon, can understand and therefore can support. Thus, budget formulation proceeds along organizational lines until it is legally adopted by the Board of Trustees.

5. While the business office is responsible for the overall control of the budget, individual cost centers are responsible for their estimates and subsequent expenditures. All expenditures initiated by individual cost centers must receive approval through organizational lines of authority.

6. All expenditures must conform to the policies of the Board of Trustees.
The Budget Cycle

The budgetary cycle consists of the evolution, implementation, and evaluation of the budget. This cycle can be outlined as follows:

1. Preparation — A cost center function

2. Presentation — An administrative function

3. Adoption and Authorization — A Board of Trustees function

4. Administration and Implementation — A cost center and administrative function

5. Evaluation — A combined administrative and Board of Trustees function.

Budget Funds

For the purpose of carrying out the entire educational program of the College, the Board of Trustees, in accordance with the law, has established funds for operation. A fund may be defined simply as a sum of money segregated for the purpose of carrying on specific activities or attaining certain objectives. Each fund is a completely separate entity that must maintain its own financial integrity without permanent assistance from another fund.

The two most important funds in the budget are the Educational Fund and the Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund. These two funds represent the Operating Funds for Harper College.

A. Educational Fund

The Educational Fund budget is the largest and most important operating budget for the College. This fund is established for the purpose of financing the cost of the academic and service programs. It finances the cost of instructional, administrative and professional salaries, supplies and equipment, library books, materials, maintenance of instructional and administrative equipment, and other costs pertaining to the educational program. This fund is currently limited to a local property tax rate of 17.5 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation.

The major sources of revenue for this fund are local taxes, state apportionment and tuition and fees.

The expenditures for this fund are categorized according to the following function and object:

B. Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund

The Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund budget provides for the operation and maintenance of the physical plant. This fund is established for the purpose of maintaining and improving existing buildings and grounds as well as the fixtures and equipment which are a permanent part of the buildings and grounds. This fund is currently limited to a tax rate of 7.5 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation.
The sources of revenue for this fund are local taxes and state apportionment.

Campus Buildings

Capital funds for the College buildings were provided through a combination of General Assembly appropriations and local construction bond issues approved by the district voters in April of 1966. By 1969, 45 percent of the construction master plan was completed. Harper College opened its doors to 5,400 students at the Palatine campus in the fall of that year.

Subsequent buildings were constructed as state appropriations were made available. The physical education center (Building M) was funded through local bond issues approved in a 1975 referendum.
