Income Information for Non-IRS Tax Filers
To verify income information, tax filers who filed an income tax return with a taxing authority in a U.S. territory (Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands) or commonwealth (Puerto Rico and the Northern Mariana Islands) or with a foreign central government, must submit a copy of a transcript of their tax information if a transcript is available at no charge from that jurisdiction's taxing authority. A signed copy of the applicable 2015 income tax return that was filed with the taxing authority is only acceptable if tax filers are unable to obtain a free copy of a transcript of their tax information. Those who are not required to file an income tax return under that taxing authority's rules must submit a copy of their Wage and Tax Statement (or equivalent documentation) for each source of employment income received for 2015 and a signed statement identifying all of the individual's income and taxes for 2015. If 2015 wages were in a foreign currency, list the amount and currency type and the amount converted to U.S. dollars. If you need assistance, use www.oanda.com/currency/converter to help with the currency conversion.
