

The Counseling Courier

What's your plan?

You've started the Spring semester. Now what?? Did you know on the student portal, you can start developing your plans for the future? Click on the My Plan tab. Here's what's inside...

Academic Support Resources

can provide information on various support services offered by Harper like tutoring and writing help. In this section you can also find information on the library, our Access and Disability Services and students needing assistance with English as a Second Language (ESL).

Career Planning. Within the Career Planning section, you can take an assessment to learn more about careers that may suit you. You can also learn about transferring or what type of job you can do with a given major. You can also sign up for a workshop that can assist you with digging a little deeper into career planning and deciding on a major.

Job Placement. If you're interested in assistance with your resume, job search, interviewing skills, internships or information on job postings, the Job Placement section can help you!

Educational Planning. Check your unofficial transcript, run an evaluation of your progress to completion and use these tools to begin planning your educational goals.

Student Life and Athletics. If you are interested in getting involved in clubs, doing community service, playing a sport or just learning about events around campus, this is the area for you!

Financial Planning. Find out information about scholarships, loans, and important payment and registration dates. Also check out some financial planning tools to budget your money.
